

Briarlake Update

Week of August 1, 2010

Book Signing for China's Hope, by Barbara Nowell
TODAY! 1:30 – 2:30 p.m., Room B-216

Hosted by Business & Professional Women's SS Class

China's Hope, a new novel by Briarlake's own Barbara Nowell, is an engaging story told from the viewpoint of young girls and women in rural China. The brave faith of kidnapped young people will thrill Christians who are reminded how powerful our God is throughout the world.

Jewelry Auction for Moving Forward Campaign

As part of our Moving Forward Campaign, we will be sharing stories of how God is working through people to help us raise the funds for our campus improvements. Recently, Janelle Chickesh of Necessary Things, who is a friend of a friend of someone who attends Briarlake, heard about our church's ministries and wanted to donate some beautiful handmade sterling silver jewelry for us to sell or auction as a fundraiser for our Moving Forward campaign. This jewelry will be on display in Backlot Java on Sunday August 1 and August 8 for bids in a silent auction. All proceeds will go towards our Moving Forward Campaign to improve our children's and student ministry areas. The results of the auction will be announced on Sunday August 15 when we will feature the next exciting story: Briarlake member Jeff Benedict's ebay efforts for Moving Forward! Be thinking about how you can help your church move forward!
